

Minimum Release Rule

Rule

No medium or high-consequence AI-assisted output may be released without named approver sign-off and documented evidence references.

Enforcement

Outputs that fail this rule are returned for correction and may proceed only after required controls are complete.

Use

Apply this as the standing release baseline in all consequential workflows.

Next Step

Need full implementation support across teams and workflows? Get the complete toolkit at shop.paidar.ai/products/toolkit.